THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP.
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET.

After-Inventory Sale.

In spite of financial conditions we have just closed the most successful spring and summer season of our career.

In the short period of less than six years we have gained the position of undisputed leadership in the outer garment field—and in acquiring this distinction have found it necessary to enlarge our building on six different occasions within that time.

The next few days will see the last of the summer goods—remaining lots will be closed out at ridiculously little prices in preparation for an early fall season.

Many of the garments offered this week are staple styles, very suitable for fall. Perhaps you may find just what you're in need of among these greatly reduced lots.

Many of the best bargains are not advertised—Every day during the next few weeks will find new lots at new prices until the last summer garment is sold.

Tomatoes and Onions.

Use very tender new onions or onions previously cooked and left over. If new onions are used cut in thin slices and saute in hot butter a few minutes without darkening the color of the onion. Butter an agateware serving dish; put in a layer of sliced tomatoes, season with salt and pepper, sprinkle with buttered bread or cracker crumbs, then add a layer of onion slices; continue in the same order, having the last layer cracker crumbs, until all the ingredients are used. Bake in a moderate oven one-half to three-fourths of an hour.

It matters little what it is that you want—whether a situation or a servant—a "want" ad in The Star will reach the person who can fill your need.
